T. B. Drugs under Drugs Price control order, 1995

2896. MISS SAROJ KHAPARDE: Will the Minister of CHEMICALS AND FERTILIZERS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that while the Centre has brought T.B. drugs under the Drugs price Control Order, 1995 to contain their hike in prices, the current prices of these drugs are higher than those were before the control;

(b) if so, the details thereof and the reasons therefor; and

(c) what action Government propose to take to bring down their prices?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CHEMICALS AND FERTILIZERS (SHRI EDUARDO FALEIRO): (a) to (c) As per "modifications in Drug Policy, 1986"—an objective criteria based on turnover and market competition, and not therapeutic grouping, has been adopted to include drugs in the price controlled category.

Under DPCO 95', there are two drugs namely Rifiampicin and Streptomycin, which are used for the treatment of T.B., and these were under price control earlier also, The Government has not effected any change in their prices under the DPCO '95.
